The Consignor is the owner of all goods consigned to Home Trading Post Inc., and has the legal right to enter into this Consignment Agreement; and the goods are saleable and /or free & clear of liens or other claims.

Home Trading Post retains the right to accept or decline any item for consignment at their sole discretion and retains the right to display items for sale as they see fit.

During the first 30 days, Home Trading Post will sell the item at the initial price. After 30 days, if the item is not sold, the item price will drop by 10% of the original price. After 60 days the price will drop by another 10% of the original price. At 90 days the initial consignment period will expire.

All merchandise that is not sold at the end of the consignment time frame will be evaluated by both the Home Trading Post and the Consignor... Items without a formal extended agreement, must be picked-up within 5 days of the end of the consignment agreement or will become the property of Home Trading post and may be donated or disposed of at our discretion.

Home Trading Post shall submit a check for 50% of the final sales proceeds, to the Consignor within 10 to 15 business days of receipt of the sale.

The Seller and Consignor do hereby agree to the terms set forth above by their signatures found below.
